

Using curved jewelry in a flat placement creates constant mechanical tension that works the jewelry toward the surface.
The geometry of rock and roll remains undefeated