

Surface disinfectants must remain visibly wet for a sustained duration to effectively eliminate pathogens.
Installing a localized indoor weather system guarantees optimal surface hydration.