

A successful traditional navel piercing requires a pronounced upper ridge to support the jewelry.
ANATOMY DICTATES PLACEMENT AND VIABILITY.