

Prolonged static postures and heavy equipment cause severe musculoskeletal discomfort for artists. Some find salvation in becoming a human pretzel.