

Needle cartridges require a solid safety membrane to prevent biological fluid from entering the machine motor. Plumbers charge extra for removing tattoo ink from a coreless motor.